291 Country Club Drive, Incline Village, Nevada
(on the campus of Sierra Nevada College)

This year's Children's Environmental Science Day will be held at the Tahoe Center for Environmental Sciences in Incline Village, Nevada.

Join us on August 7, 2009, from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. for the 10th Annual Children's Environmental Science Day. Children's Environmental Science Day provides activities and an opportunity for discovery for kids ages 8 and up together with their families.

Is our stream healthy? What lives in Lake Tahoe? What does algae feel like? What is a bull thistle? Join us and find out! Entertaining and educational hands-on activities will be provided by UC Davis scientists, Sierra Watershed Education Partnerships, Tahoe Resource Conservation District and others. Reservations are appreciated. For more information, see our website at <http://terc.ucdavis.edu> or call (775) 881-7560, ext. 7474.
